

Decorator to show childhood home

Auburn interior decorator Jesse Kline is holding an open house 3 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 26, at her childhood home, 165 VanAnden St., Auburn, to celebrate the launch of her new Web site, JesseKline.com.

The Community Preservation Committee's Historic Homes Tour recently selected the house as a stop on the tour slated for July 8.

"Now owning the house I grew up in, redecorating has been a full-time endeavor," said Kline in a press release.

Kline also works on commercial spaces. She says that her work to create "an attractive, unified decor will lure customers in off the street and into your restaurant, shop or office."
